ROWDY'S RANT!

Hi everyone and welcome to the March newsletter.

I'm happy to report that the club is rolling along through the early months of the year without too many drama's. The management and ride captains are doing their best to provide to the members a variety of rides and social events that we can all enjoy, even if some of them have, unfortunately been cancelled due to the weather. Any activity that members would like to put forward will always be welcome.

Mozzi (as the new merchandiser) will be presenting Steel Horse range of merchandise at the next meeting, so come along and have a look at what's on offer. Thank you Mozzi for your hard work! Please bear in mind it is a Steel Horse policy that payment is required at time of order. Suppliers sell in bulk, and for the club to afford this, it is essential that orders are paid for upfront.

Although we are only half way through the "Steel Horse" year I would like to remind members that management positions are available in October at the time of our AGM. Anyone interested in any of the positions can find each management "role" in our rules and guidelines manual or approach any committee member. Understanding the duties of that role before commencing would be a big advantage.

One last thing, it has been noticed that some members have club patches placed incorrectly on their vests. Loges provides a diagram at the end of each newsletter so please check and make any modifications if necessary.

Cheers everyone,
Rowdy...

SUGAR'S SPOT

Hi All,

The raffle this month is being donated by BC and Drastic.

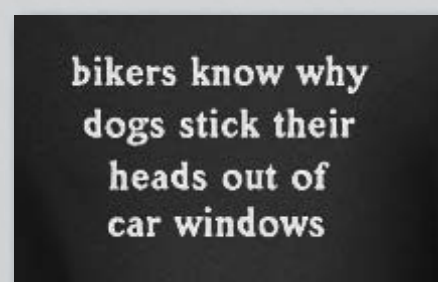

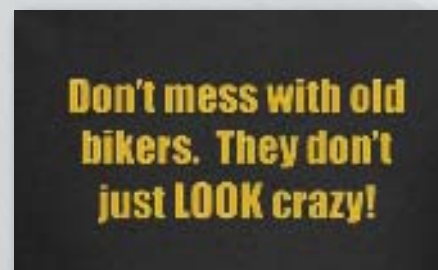

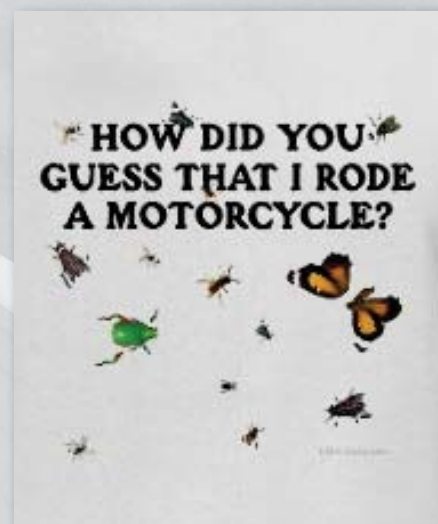

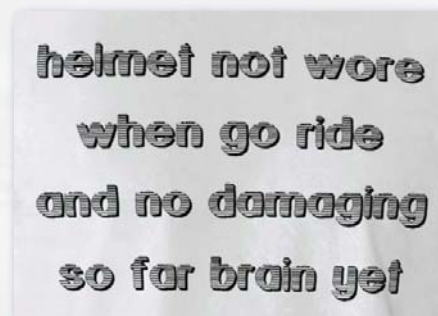

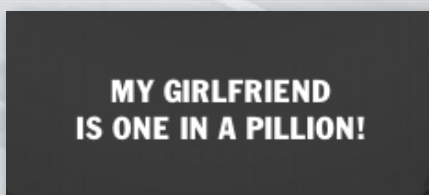

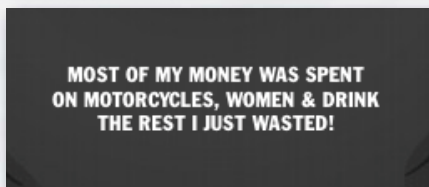

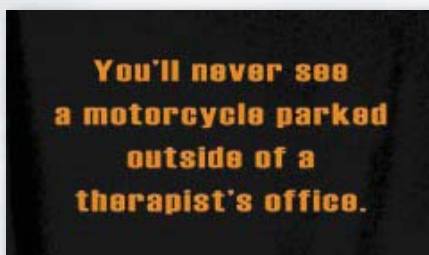

Please keep Sunday 15th April free, it's our 3rd poker run which is always good to get the whole club together. We have some good prizes to win.

Sorry the drive-in did not happen but it was just too much rain to go.

See you all at the next meeting.

BIKER T-SHIRTS SLOGANS!

WEST RIDE REPORT

19 February 2012.

Hi all,

This was a ride that Sarge was supposed to lead for Sam and Cosmo, but a phone call from him saying that he had some dramas at home, (the family pet had passed away and Sugar was a bit upset) and a request for me to lead the ride for him, found me zooming up to the Coffee Club at Goodna to meet the troops.

We were all hanging out for a ride, so I wasn't surprised to see a good roll up waiting to hit the road.

We had: Storm, Nomad, Pyro, Phoenix, Boots, BC, Rowdy, Jak,

Ynot, Hurricane (tail end Charlie) and, of course, Me. While we were having Breakfast, Sarge called to let me know he would make it if he could. I told him we were supposed to pick up Shadow at Fernvale, and he said he would try to meet us there.

When we stopped at Fernvale for a bum rest, I got a text from Shadow saying that he would be unable to make it, so a quick chat with the members and it was decided we would head for the Kilcoy pub for lunch. I phoned this info through to Sarge, and he said he would try to meet us there.

We stopped at the little café at the end of the dam wall, and rowdy offered to lead from there as he knows the area better than I do.

We had a great ride up through the twisties, the weather was beautiful and in no time, we were pulling up at the Kilcoy pub. We no sooner settled down with our first coldie and who should come sailing in, none other than the big Feller himself.

After a great lunch, and some good conversation, Sarge led us back, and we decided to come back over Mt.Glorius. I was tail end Charlie at this stage, and we finally had another pit stop at the café at the top. After another lengthy rest and more chatter, we headed off and all met up at the bottom, said our good byes and then scattered to the wind, homeward bound.

Another great day riding with a great bunch of people.

Cheers,

Steiny

WEST RIDE REPORT

10 March 2012.

The meeting point was Goodna and the members in attendance was Sam and Jo, Sarge, Rowdy, Grumpy, Drastic and Robyn, and Cosmo.

We left around 9am following the Ipswich Motorway and Cunningham Highway, then onto Boonah Road.

Cosmo brought up the rear until Boonah, when he had to head home. We visited the Boonah Markets for a quick breakfast and a look-around. We then headed off to Rathdowney, with Sarge, Drastic and Grumpy breaking out for a short spurt, stopping at Rathdowney Pub for refreshments.

A couple of riders wanted to join the Vietnam Vets Charity Day, so we decided to cut the ride short and finish at Beaudesert.

Bye for now

Sam & Jo

SOUTH RIDE REPORT

4 March 2012.

The weather looked pretty foul, so i wasn't surprised to find only three riders waiting at BP Yatala when i arrived.

They were Sarge , Cosmo and Grumpy.

It was supposed to be a south ride, but the weather looked even worse down there, so we decided to head to Beaudesert for our first bum rest, and we would decide then which way we would go. West won the vote, so we headed off to Boonah and had another look at the bike shop there, did a bit of shopping, then off to a nice little pub for lunch ( can't think of the name of it). We decided to go the back way home through Peaks crossing, where we had a bum rest, and said our goodbyes.

We only went through two very minor showers. Just a few spits, really, and were lucky enough not to get wet at all.

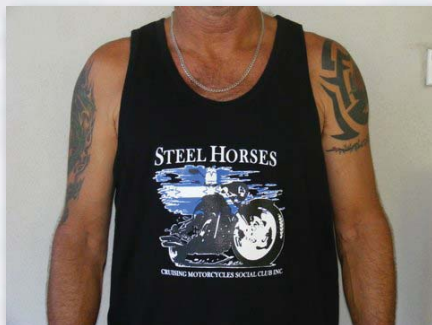

Considering the way things looked, we had a great ride. Grumpy was glad to be back on the road again, and had a grin from ear to ear all day long.

Just another great ride.

Cheers
